

Westminster Abbey is a living Church, a designated World Heritage Site, and one of the most celebrated religious buildings in the UK.

In early 2000, as part of an initiative to ensure the 750 year old building was equipped to meet the